The French Children

1. A French man called Louis Hoffman was travelling on the Titanic with his two young sons, Michel and Edmon, aged four and two. He told the other passengers that his wife was dead. But this wasn't true.

2. The true story was that his name was Michel Navratil. He had just separated from his wife Marcelle. He had decided to run away with his children. He was going to take them to New York to start a new life there.

3. When the Titanic was sinking, Michel dressed the two little boys and put them into the last lifeboat. He stayed on the ship when it sank and he drowned. The two boys were rescued by the Carpathia.

4. When the two little boys arrived in New York on the Carpathia, they were the only children who didn't have a mother or a father. Newspapers all around the world put their photograph on the front page. Their mother, Marcelle, in France saw the newspaper and recognized her children. She immediately travelled to New York to get them.

5. Her older child, Michel, had a message for her from her ex-husband. On the deck of the sinking ship he had told his son, 'when you see your mother, tell her that I loved her and that I still love her.'

33. In which paragraph did Marcelle learn that her husband loved her very much?

Spanish Couple

1. A young Spanish couple, Victor and Josefa, had just gotten married. They were from the richest families in Spain. They wanted to spend part of their honeymoon travelling to New York on the Titanic. They got on board the ship when it stopped in France.

2. But Victor's mother didn't want them to travel on the Titanic because she had had a dream that it was going to sink. So Victor left one of his servants in Paris with a lot of postcards, already written. He told the servant to send one postcard every day to his mother in Madrid, so that she would think that they were in Paris on holiday.

3. When the Titanic hit the iceberg, Victor went up to see what had happened. When he came back, he told Josefa to get dressed.

4. They both went up on deck, and Josefa got into a lifeboat. Victor stayed on the ship. When the Titanic sank, Josefa and the other people in the lifeboat heard the terrible cries of the people in the water. Josefa shouted the name of her husband Victor again and again.

5. Josefa arrived safely in New York on the Carpathia. At first Victor's mother refused to believe that her son was dead. 'But he's in Paris!' she said. 'I've just had a postcard from him today. Josefa married again six years later and had three children. She died in 1972, aged 83.

A story

1. It was late at night. Sophie was sleeping. Yellow light shone into her bedroom from the street lamp outside the window, but there was no sound of traffic. Everything was quiet.

2. Suddenly there was a low rumbling noise and Sophie's bed rocked gently. Sophie woke up, looked at the ceiling and saw that her bedroom light was swinging. She sat up and looked around. She didn't know what was happening. Then there was another rumbling noise. The bed shook so violently that Sophie fell onto the floor. She felt the floor moving under her. It was as if the whole house was jumping up and down.

3. Sophie was very frightened, but she knew what to do. She quickly rolled under her bed. The room was still shaking. One of Sophie's pictures fell off the wall and it smashed loudly. Sophie screamed. Then she heard her father shouting her name. He was trying to open her bedroom door, but the door was stuck. Sophie screamed again and started to cry.

4. It was just then that the shaking stopped and her father burst through the door. "It's OK. Sophie," he said. "You are safe now."

5. Sophie and her parents went outside. All their neighbors were standing in the street. Everyone was scared, but they all felt happy to be alive. Sophie's dad hugged her and said, "You are a brave girl, Sophie. I'm very proud of you."
